

The company “Ecofin -Audit -Service” – uses the latest technologies, which allow the company’s Clients to receive “ready-made” an effective business accounting automation, correctly state the firm’s economic condition, open internal reserves, plan and analyze activity financial results.

The business accounting and documents circulation automation made by “Ecofin -Audit -Service”, is executed step-by-step:

- forming special tasks which are set by the Client’s management team before the automated business accounting system;
- examining in details the Client’s activity, pointing out sectoral and individual particularities, analyzing the company’s existing bookkeeping system;
- drawing up and agreeing with the Client on the bookkeeping system conception, determining the information structure necessary for the Client’s management team for taking a managing decision;
- drawing up program of automation with concrete terms and stages of implementation;
- framing the documents circulation graphic, sample of primary documents and reports, types of bookkeeping and management statement accountability;
- creating a unique configuration (based on 1C products) which will take into account the specific of the Client’s activity;
- the Client’s employees will learn bookkeeping in the new configuration;
- controlling periodically the quality of the system’s working.

The combination of experience and knowledge of the qualified accountants, auditors and programmers of the company “Ecofin -Audit -Service” allows to reach high results in automating biggest companies engaged in different economic areas. The clients of the company “Ecofin -Audit -Service” can effectively solve the most difficult tasks connected to management, accountancy and tax account, financial planning and analysis.